

Engineering Careers – Scavenger Hunt

Procedure: Your goal is to complete the alphabet with engineering careers, but there's a trick! You will watch the video series I've prepared for you, and fill in any engineers with their corresponding letter. When you get to a second engineering career with the same letter as one you've already used, you may cross out another letter and put it in its place. For instance, you will fill in the space for letter A near the beginning of the video, when you are introduced to "Agricultural Engineers." The next slide talks about "Aerospace Engineers." Since A is already filled, go to any letter you want to cross out, and replace it with an A. (I'd probably choose Z or X.)

When you're done with the videos, look at the letters you have left and see if you can find other engineers (see website for helpful links) to complete your scavenger hunt. Good luck!
